Nursing Continuing Professional Development (RNs)

Penn State Ross and Carol Nese College of Nursing is approved with distinction as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the Pennsylvania State Nurses Association Approver Unit, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. The topic of this education is non-clinical and therefore we did not identify, mitigate, or disclose relevant financial relationships. This Nursing Continuing Professional Development program has been submitted for 8.0 contact hours for participants who hold a valid RN license and attend the entire program; partial contact hours are not awarded.

Continuing Education Nursing Home Administrator Policy

The Pennsylvania State Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators requires Administrators who attend the conference provide your license number to be listed on the certificate. Please bring your Nursing Home License number with you to the conference.

Continuing Education

Applied for EIGHT hours for NHA, PCHA, SW, RN, and CM. All approvals are pending. Please call Sandy at 355.6716 for more information about contact hours.

Goals/OBJECTIVES

Attendees will:

May 18th

- learn the economics of the labor market and how various factors can influence the supply, demand, and cost of labor
- identify labor trends and issues specific to the health care industry and its related markets
- learn about employment branding as a specialized strategy for employee recruitment and retention
- Through a combination of team activities and individual assignments, attendees will actively develop components of the employer branding process as it related to their specific industries and employers

May 25th

- identify and define darkness and how they experience it physically, emotionally, cognitively and spiritually.
- identify strategies and healthy practices for being with emotions difficult to bear in both themselves and others
- identify ways to look for light in darkness in their work and personal lives
- identify ways darkness can be transformed into light
- recognize the depth of impact that pandemic stress has on our workplaces and our home life
- understand the role of ambient emotions in ourselves and those with whom we work and live

- develop effective strategies to have a supportive workplace
- develop effective stress and anxiety mitigation strategies for ourselves and those close to us.
